Steel Magnolias Oct 23 - Nov 8 by Robert Harling

This beloved comedy celebrates the lives and friendship of six southern women who gather weekly in their local hair salon to share gossip, laughter and tears and navigate the joys and challenges of life together. Filled to the brim with humor, heart and hairdos, grab your best friend and GO!

Darker the Night, Brighter the Stars

Jan 22 - 31 by John Cariani

From the popular author of Almost, Maine comes another look at life in Northern Maine - this time through the eyes of a younger generation. Under the magic of a meteor shower, young Mainers wish on shooting stars and open their hearts to each other asking questions about love, their lives and themselves in this hopeful, funny and timely new play.

Primary Trust March 12 - 21 by Eboni Booth

Winner of the 2024 Pulitzer Prize for drama, this quirky, moving and uplifting play tells the story of a lonely man named Kenneth who meets his imaginary friend every night for Mai Tai's at a local tiki bar. When Kenneth unexpectedly loses his long-term job in a bookstore, he is forced to step outside his comfort zone to look for work and discovers the joy of making real friends and the importance of human connection.

Rights to this show are still pending.

The Fiancé April 30 - May 9 by Emily Bohannon

Don't miss this heartfelt new comedy about love, loss and hope in three generations of single women! Imagine a recently heartbroken 31 year-old woman, her 62 year-old divorced mom and her 85 year-old widowed grandmother. Guess which one's the fiancé? When a loving granddaughter convinces her grandmother to try online dating, they agree to write profiles for each other and jump in together. When love knocks on Grandma's door first, everyone in the family is surprised, including the grandmother! This heartwarming comedy celebrates the joy that comes from opening your heart to the possibility of finding love at any age.
